Pastor Howard Braymer

Max Lucado Movie Tonight at 6 p.m.

The burden of discontent

Want. What a curious piece of luggage. Like an optical illusion, this is one bag you can never seem to fill. The fuller it is, the emptier it seems. If you're carrying this heavy, bottomless bag, it's time to journey through the 23rd Psalm. This passage holds a secret about traveling light. What you have in your Shepherd is greater than what you don't have in life.

Fresh Grounded Faith

If you are interested in going, let Donna know today. Early-Bird pricing ($39) ends Oct. 9.

What did you miss Wednesday night?

This past Wednesday night you missed a lesson about when life is stinky. Fish buried in a garden made the whole neighborhood smell ... but they had more harvest than they could use. During stinky times you find out what is really important and you see God in a new way. God brings beautiful results out of a painful process. The strongest people we know have been through the stink.

Come in your dirty work clothes ... just come!

Missionary Renae Thompson has been in the states visiting her supporting churches. She's having some physical difficulties we can pray for. She is a huge blessing to the pastor and church where she works in Germany. Pray that God continues to protect and give her the ability to report to churches.

Prayer is the key!

- Continue to spend the first seven minutes of your day in prayer. Consider these suggestions:
 - Continue to pray for the Redmans.
 - Pray for young families to be faithfully involved in our church.
 - Pray for our church to be led by the Holy Spirit to be the light needed in our community.
 - Continue to pray for the Mintles.
 - Pray for an Open Door, Open Mouth, and Open Heart to share the gospel.
 - Remember our missionaries and pray for their safety and family's protection.
